THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1894.

ONE CENT.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For The Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEADER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.
White squall—Fair.
Blue—Rain or snow.
White above—Will warm.
If black beneath—Colder than blue.
Unless black's shown—no change will be.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 6 o'clock to-morrow evening.

A SONG OF DRIFTING.

Evermore we are drifting on with the restless tide,
But there must be a bound to the ocean—a home on the other side.
Somewhere there is a gleam sweet with the healing balm,
And amidst its weary waters with the mother tides of the sea.
Windest the river weary through forest no man hath trod,
Where the darkness is shut from the shining
of the sun in the window of God.
But out from the gloom it flashes in the light of the day to be,
And mingles its weary waters with the
mother tides of the sea.
We are not hopeless, homeless! wherever our feet may roam,
We are going like little children to the gates of our Father's home;
And though dark be the way and dreary,
when life with its strife is past,
We shall enter in at the portals and rest in His love at last!

Cherry Pectoral. In croup, it gives immediate relief.

the Jeweler can fit you in one. Prices

G. E. KAYSER of Columbus, O., writes to The Portsmouth Tribune that he has examined the peach buds, and finds that 80 per cent., if not all buds, are killed.

MOTHERS should remember, when a physician cannot be procured, that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral promptly relieves the croup.

A MAD dog created some excitement in Poplar places one day last week by ficiously attacking several persons of that place and biting a number of dogs

The first United States census, taken in 1790, gives the value of real estate at $479,000,000; of houses and personal property at $141,000,000.

The highest price paid for property in London until 1888 was 1,285 square feet on Old Broad Street for £37,000—£1,300, 000 an acre, or $6,300,000.

In 1891 Great Britain had 3,572,000
houses, whose rental value was £20,000, time in many weeks. He is slowly recovering from a stroke of paralysis.

The Associated Charities acknowledge the following donations: Mrs. Emily

In the Circuit Court yesterday Jacob Ditz, charged with attempting to commit rape, and Charles Dunn, charged with forgery, were both discharged. The jury in neither case was out over fifteen minutes.

PUNCE prisoners escaped from jail at Grayson by knocking down the Jailor's son as he was taking them supper. One, named James, indicted for murder, was soon after captured, and it is thought the others will be.

Messrs. Crawford & Cady, the two popular young men who have rented the Neptune Hall to start a grocery, expect to be able to open Saturday morning.
One of the best groceries in the city will be ready to scoop in the dimes and quarters and dollars.

W. W. BALL has a design for a handsome residence which he thinks of erecting on his property at the mouth of Limestone at an early date. It will make a most attractive home, and Mr. Ball's is the only site adapted to its style.

The earnings of the L. and N. Railroad for the fourth week in January were $204,850, a decrease of $98,000 from the same time last year. The decrease for the month of January was $230,084—showing how blessed it is to be in business these good Democratic times.

NEAR Litesville Charles O'Leary, aged 23, lost his balance and fell out of a wagon, the wheels passing over his chest, crushing his body so that he died in thirty minutes. Only six weeks ago he was wedded to Miss Fannie Jennings, who is almost crazed over the sudden calamity.

The concert for the benefit of the Associated Charities, THE LEDGER successfully to say, was not a financial success. The entire receipts were less than $25, and the Treasurer of the Associated Charities had to go down in his pocket to pay the expenses. Mr. Kinneman of the Opera-house also "lost out" on it.

The House Committee on the Judiciary have favorably reported a bill to divide Kentucky into two judicial districts. His action is largely based on the amount of whisky and tobacco produced in the state, and the consequent business for the courts in deciding questions concerning the internal revenue laws.

The works of Martin Luther bear evidence to the fullness of his vocabulary of abuse. In denouncing his adversaries in controversy he followed the custom of his time. In his controversy with Henry VIII, he called the authority of England's kings, a "rotten worm of the earth," a ridiculous donkey and other things which will not bear repeating.

W. O. BAKER, a Postal Clerk on this division of the C. and O., was presented with a magnificent silver service by a large association upon his retirement a few days ago.

HOPKINSVILLE is to have a handsome new hotel built of Milwaukee brick and trimmed with terra cotta. Mayville would have a ten-story skyscraper, built of silver brick and trimmed with gold fringe, if wind would build it.

FRED W. BERTHAM and Miss Agnes Conner were quietly married at the Baptist parsonage last night by the Rev. R.
G. Patrick. Mr. and Mrs. Crane are well-known young people and have a host of friends. The LEDGER extends to them a successful and pleasant life.

H. P. WARREN of Mexico, Mo., is here on legal business and was sworn in as an attorney by Circuit Clerk Woodward yesterday. His business is looking after the interest of Robert Murphy in the estate of the late William H. Murphy of Shannon. It will be remembered that THE LEDGER a few weeks ago gave a history of this somewhat remarkable case.

Baseball Club Assured.

The Y. M. C. A. Athletic Organization
Perfecting Last Night.

Last night at the Y. M. C. A. Hall a goodly number of enthusiasts responded to the call for a baseball club.

An organization was perfected and the following officers elected:

President—William H. Cox.

Vice-President—Harry Taylor.

General Manager—Harry C. Curran.

Board of directors—George T. Hunter,
John C. Adamson, William D. Cochran,
De Witt C. Franklin.

It goes without saying that a baseball club in our city means recreation for our citizens, both ladies and gentlemen, that the sport and amusement may have its proper place in the harmless list, and under its present system and government it means elevation and great personal good, both physically and mentally.

The Street Railroad Company has generously offered 10 per cent. of its receipts taken in at each and every professional game played; furthermore they offer free transportation to and from the grounds for players whenever practicing is done and free carriage to visiting clubs.

The Fair Company asks 10 per cent. of the gate receipts coming from professional games. They offer sufficient ground in front of the Floral Hall, where seats are arranged, so that a fine amphitheater is had free from the sun and a comfortable seat assured all.

It's coming sure, and you must get ready to take stock to buy the necessary material, so that the club will start off with assured success.

On to-morrow we will publish the rules and regulations governing the club.

MANQUERADE BALL

At the Residence of Miss Lida Rogers in Honor of the Junior Circle.

The Leap Year Masquerade Ball at the residence of Miss Lida Rogers on East Third Street in honor of the Junior Circle was a complete success.

The young ladies and gentlemen, attired in costumes of the most elaborate description, "tripped the light fantastic" in the most comical manner.

Henry Wardsworth and his friend Miss Hall held in place the wallpaper throughout the evening. Miss Linda Moss served as a choice piece of bric-a-brac, with her friend, Mr. Cummings, was the rag.
Miss Chessman and Dr. Drayall, attired in a costume of white, looked like the emblems of purity and innocence. Asa Burgess was decidedly the master of the evening, owing to the absence of George Lloyd.
Mr. Curran chaperoned his loving friends, Miss Bisset and Miss Wardsworth, who very nobly entertained him. Miss Wor-wick, attired in a charming costume of black brocade trimmed in blue silk with diamond ornaments, was the belle of the ball. Miss Stanley Nolin lent her presence for the occasion, while Charles Coke was the "baited" star.

It was altogether an enjoyable evening, and the charming Miss Rogers is a per-sonaged hostess within herself.

no bones were broken. He was badly injured, however, but may recover.

A Wedding This Morning.
The wedding of Rolla C. Owens and Miss Mollie E. Blanchard took place this morning at 9 o'clock in the parlors at the residence of Rev. E. B. Calk.

Mr. Owens is employed at the Mayville Manufacturing Company, and is a popular young man, while Miss Blanche-ard is a daughter of John and Jane Blanchard, and a most accomplished and refined young lady.

They have many warm friends who will join with THE LEDGER in wishing them a happy and prosperous life.
They left at 10 o'clock train for Cincinnati.

LECTURER ARRESTED.

Americans the Only Ones Who Have No Rights in America.

Colonel Sims, the American Protective Association lecturer, was arrested at Appleton, Wis., on his way to Kaukauna, a civil warrant sworn out by Humphrey Pierce, the Mayor of Appleton.

Sims some time ago gave a lecture at Kaukauna, which resulted in a riot, and he was chased out of town.

He gave notice that he would return, and started from Oshkosh with about 300 of his followers and the Arion Band for Kaukauna.

Kaukauna Catholics had prepared to receive him and his crowd in such a way that the residents became alarmed, and the Mayor of Kaukauna and some of the officials went to Appleton to consult the Appleton official.

When Sims was arrested his followers got off the train and formed in line down the avenue, where the band played patriotic melodies.

If Archbishop Ireland were advertised for a lecture in Kaukauna would the Kaukauna Methodists or Baptists or Presbyterians organize and drive him out of town?

Are we in free America or are we in Italy?

Where are we at anyway?

CHANGE OF BASE.

The Bishop McNamara Cases Still Troubling the Missouri Court.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., February 6th.—
The prosecution in the McNamara case at Independence, decided to enter a nolle prosequat at Independence, and file new information in the Criminal Court in Kansas City.

This is done, the defense claim, to prolong as much possible the imprisonment of the ex-Prison, who is now ready to furnish bond at Independence.

The subpoena issued for Bishop Hogan, Fathers Lillis and Dalton and Mother Rose Vincent to appear at Independence next Thursday and testify in the latter's case are thereby rendered void.

From another source it is learned that the reason for the nolle prosequat is that the prosecution anticipated serious trouble at Independence Thursday, and, in order to avoid it, decided to bring the case here.

There is not the slightest doubt but that the feeling at Independence is at a high tension, and it would take very little to bring about a riot of the most serious nature. As it is, there is no certainty that all will pass off quietly Thursday.

A Westmoreland, one of the defense witnesses in the McNamara trial, has received an anonymous letter informing him that a committee of 500 was engaged in taking the names of all the A. P. A.'s for future use.

Westmoreland is told to look out for himself and be on his guard.

Justice Nichols of Independence to-day reduced the total bond of J. V. McNamara, in the cases against him, for slandering Fathers Dalton and Lillis and Sister Rose Vincent, to $1,850.

J. G. Minter of Thirteenth and Vigo streets appeared before the court. Ad-was accepted as bondsman, but McNamara was not released this afternoon, owing to the reported inability of Deputy Marshal Ross to find either Marshal Stewart or Prosecuting Attorney Brown.

THE DEATH

Turner-Howard Feud Reopened at Harlan C. H.

The Factions Have a Duel With Knives and Pistols.

Two Turner Boys Are Killed Outright in the Affray With Dr. Nolin, Who Was a Supporter of the Cause—More Trouble Feared.

FIREVILLE, Ky., Feb. 7.—On the streets at Harlan courthouse, Tuesday, John and Will Turner, son and half brother respectively of old George B. Turner, were killed by Dr. Will Nolin.

The Turners were, it is said, drunk, and in town to attend court. Nolin was in one of the stores of the place when Will Turner came and began to abuse Nolin violently, at the same time flourishing a knife. Nolin, without waiting a moment, pulled his pistol and began shooting at the other.

John Turner, hearing of the shooting, came on the scene about that time and began shooting at Nolin. After a few minutes, he turned his pistol on the other Turner, killed him at the first shot. Nolin was unhurt.

There is said to be intense excitement over the affair, and further trouble is looked for. There was bad blood between the Turners and Nolin, growing out of a quarrel which occurred a couple of months ago, in which some of the Turners shot and wounded James Nolin, an elder brother of Dr. Nolin.

The latter is young and a brother of B. F. Nolin, superintendent of the schools for Harlan, and who was the republican nominee for legislature at the last election. He was defeated by Dr. Blair, of this county.

Dr. Nolin has another brother John, who about four years ago shot and killed two men in the same fashion as this done. He is still a fugitive from justice.

Dr. Nolin gave himself up to the authorities.

HANGED BY A MOB.

Andrew Pikkarian Betrayed the Trust of Friends and Family Assailed That Crime.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Feb. 8.—The small village of Eylon, east of this city, on the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad, was the scene of a mob lynching. The name of the victim was Andrew Pikkarian. He was a Russian Finn, and lived a few miles from Eylon, at a little place called Hecce's Crossing.

Monday night Peter Hatell and wife left their home to go to a dance, and left their 8-year-old daughter at home in the care of Pikkarian. Her temporary guardian put the little girl to bed early, but about 10 o'clock at night he was sleeping off his drink, and he was present when they were fearful of the powerful assailant and dared not interfere.

Pikkarian was arrested as soon as the crime had been committed, but he was brought to Eylon, where he was held in the care of Pikkarian. He committed the crime. The child is expected to die.

Tuesday night, as soon as it became known that Pikkarian admitted his guilt, 50 indignant citizens, wearing masks, surrounded the frail structure in which he was placed, determined to hang him. Officers protested, but to no avail.

The jail doors were smashed in and the culprit brought out by force, a rope was fastened to his neck, and he was dragged 80 rods to a railroad track, where he was hanged. The village is still wild over the outrage, and should the mob spirit of the day be associated, they will also be lynched.

STAR CHAMBERS

Jones, Vest and Mills Work on the Tariff Bill.

They Preserve the Deepest Mystery Concerning Their Work.

COAL AND IRON TO BE TREATED—A Bill to be Practically Agreed Upon—Home to Day Will Probably Be Passed—Iron-Whisky Tax Increased.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The democratic members of the finance committee entrusted with the delicate task of framing a tariff bill which can pass the senate, Messrs. Jones, Vest and Mills, have adopted the star chamber method toward their democratic colleagues of the house, and preserve the deepest mystery concerning their work on the bill.

It was learned Wednesday that the committee has made a careful study of the opposition which the bill will encounter from certain democratic senators, and a provision will be made to head off such opposition as is believed to be formidable.

The most important concession is the placing of a duty on coal. Unwilling as are such radical free traders as Senators Vest and Mills, to remove so-called raw materials from the free list, and especially coal, they recognize that such a concession is essential to the passage of the bill in the senate is almost hopeless.

For similar reasons the committee is inclined to place a duty on sugar. Representatives of the sugar refiners have made strong appeals to the committee, and the committee has been inclined to place a duty on sugar.

Refiners ask that a discriminating duty of 35 mills per pound be added to whatever duty is levied on raw sugar, which presumably will be one cent per pound. The committee, while favoring a discriminating duty on refined sugar for the reason assigned by the refiners, is unwilling to place a rate higher than one mill per pound additional.

So little is feared from the opposition of the Alabama senators that they have no intention at present of placing a duty on iron ore. The Alabama senators, Messrs. Morgan and Tughr, while against the administration, realize that the only interests in their state which demand a duty on iron ore are represented by northern capitalists, who have given profitable employment to some of their constituents.

With his re-election to the senate pending in the near future, Senator Morgan prefers to offend this comparatively limited class of Alabama citizens by destroying their prosperity than run counter to the great majority of the state, and to the great majority of the nation, which declared protection unconstitutional.

Similar disregard will be paid to the protests of the New York senators against the attack on the collar and the industry of Troy, and to wool men.

It is believed the tax on whisky will be increased and the bonded period extended.

Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, believes that the bill will be reported from the committee in a fortnight and will be in the hands of the president in a few days. It is believed that the bill, as it comes from the finance committee, will contain even more radical features than the bill as it comes from the house.
